Chapter 1 by Darkdragon6026

This is the Explorer 62. We need help! The year is 2648, passenger count, 1,483. Our captain was found dead after an unknown ship boarded. Many of us fear the ship belongs to thieves other believe something worse. Me, I believe a traitor is aboard our space station. The unknown ship well... Wait? What! It is the worsted that we feared they're... They're here and they found me... Please HELP!

Chapter 2 by whirlwind

I was watching the news. Nothing interesting, as usual. Some news about talentless celebrities, some about boring politics, and some about the usual spaceship related incidents. I switched the channel. News again.

"...space station has received a distress call from one of the Explorer research vessels. They claimed to have been boarded by an unknown ship, which supposedly took the Explorer 62 under control and killed their captain. None of this has been confirmed however attempts to contact the vessel have failed. The Diamond Corporation, who was in charge of the Explorer program, has arranged a rescue mission with one of the ships nearby the area where the vessel sent the signal. They ha...."

Suddenly, the holographic projector was turned off. I turned around and saw my younger brother, Richard.

"Hey, I was watching that!" I angrily looked at him.

"Oh, I'm sorry if you wanted to hear that, but you could just, you know, look at the projector. At any time, even Richard said sarcastically."
